FIND

FORTUNE IAS NEWS DAILY

29-10-2026

Page 1

- Netanyahu bloc leads Israel vote, falls short of majority
- SC asks if poll panel has powers to punish voters

Page 5

- Naidu seeks Central aid for cyclone damage

Page 6

- Clinging on: On Netanyahu and the Israel elections
- Hunker down: On Cyclone Arnab, its landfall
- India-New Zealand trade ties set to scale new heights
- The SIR verdict, serious constitutional questions

Page 7

- Disinvestment as key economic strategy

Page 8

- India raises concern over U.S. support for Pakistan's F-16 jets
- Japan-northeast India link to be strengthened: Centre

Page 10

- Centre forms panel to probe death of young cheetah in M.P.'s Kuno
- UAE honours flydubai crew, Smit Machchhar for bravery
- Union Cabinet gives nod to ₹7,396-crore panchayat scheme

Page 11

- India and Mexico to start trade deal talks

Page 12

- What has driven the high Arab turnout in Israel's elections?

Page II

- How the humble salt marsh softens the ocean's fury
- New genetic tools are breathing fresh life into India's staple crops

Page III

- Is GRAP enough to curb pollution?

Page IV

- How neoliberalism turned the world against its young

enquiries@fortuneias.com | www.fortuneias.com
+91 94950 15888 | +91 81389 40888

Click to Join our Telegram Channel
@fortuneias