

FIND

05-05-2026

FORTUNE IAS NEWS DAILY

Page 1

- Change and churn in Kerala, T.N., Bengal

Page 8

- A round of elections that signals structural dominance
- Capitalising on changing Tamil voter mood
- Lost and found: On the 2026 Assembly elections

Page 11

- With defeat in Kerala, Left out of power for first time since 1977

Page 12

- Rajnath Singh pushes for edge in high-tech warfare
- SC weighs risk of misuse of benefits for trans people

Page 16

- Corporate governance issues at Chowgule Steamships
- India resumes wheat exports after a gap of four years
- National Stock Exchange unveils Electronic Gold Receipt
- Households face rising medical inflation

Page 17

- UAE says Iran has resumed attacks as the U.S. moves to reopen Hormuz
- Ukraine targets Moscow skyscraper in rare attack
- OPEC exit 'part of long-term plan, not directed against anyone': UAE oil chief
- Carney looks to Europe to build new world order

Page II

- How to know if a medical technology actually adds value

Page III

- Percentage decline in India's palm oil imports in April
- Did the PM's broadcast violate MCC?
- What does the latest ruling mean for Forest Rights Act?

Page IV

- Das Adam Smith Problem: rethinking Smith's moral and economic worlds

enquiries@fortuneias.com | www.fortuneias.com

+91 94950 15888 | +91 81389 40888

Click to Join our Telegram Channel

@fortuneias