

FIND

06-08-2026

FORTUNE IAS NEWS DAILY

Page 1

- RBI panel keeps repo rate steady at 5.25%
- Meta apologises for 'errors in operating platform' as govt. summons senior official
- Having majority no reason for lawmakers to defy party: SC

Page 5

- '20% of Karnataka electors to be dropped from draft rolls'

Page 6

- Fiscal federalism, efficiency versus equity concerns
- A climate resilience pathway between India and China
- Highs and lows: On GST metrics
- Quantum shift: On private industry and national research spending

Page 7

- India's cancer focus must shift to early detection
- Did abrogating special status for J&K make a difference?

Page 8

- Fear, personal safety cannot decide my duty to the people: Sheikh Hasina
- 2019 marked a new chapter for J&K and Ladakh, says Modi
- 'Police modernisation scheme awaits Finance Ministry's nod'

Page 9

- Protests stall Parliament for 13th consecutive day
- Over 43 lakh voters deleted from draft rolls in Jharkhand

Page 10

- Listen to Gen Z, don't repress them, says SC on NEET-UG protests
- DGMA warns of rising cyberthreats as ports adopt digital technologies
- SC seeks action on illegal constructions, warns civic authorities of contempt

Page 11

- RBI has enough funds to pay for UPI use
- 'Polymer currency notes will be in circulation from next FY'

Page 12

- New Hormuz route agreed, to be managed jointly with Oman: Iran
- Russian barrage on Kyiv kills 17; defences fall short
- China announces Countermeasures against Washington

FIND

06-08-2026

FORTUNE IAS NEWS DAILY

Page II

- How police excesses turn peaceful demonstrations into medical crises
- Ghost particles' can point way to spent nuclear fuel

Page III

- The road ahead for the Asiatic lion
- Why is the Indian Statistical Institute Bill controversial?

enquiries@fortuneias.com | www.fortuneias.com

+91 94950 15888 | +91 81389 40888

Click to Join our Telegram Channel

@fortuneias