

FIND

15-08-2026

FORTUNE IAS NEWS DAILY

Page 1

- India helps China evade tariffs, claims U.S. report
- Murmu promises reforms to make public exams secure
- 114 years and counting: this British-era post office in Munnar still delivers

Page 4

- Project for citizen-friendly police stations launched

Page 6

- Freedom, identity & choice: what I-Day means to Gen Z

Page 8

- India at 80, a democracy in search of renewal
- Financial democracy, the Jan Dhan transformation
- House in disorder: On the monsoon session of Parliament
- Internet unbound: On the summoning of Meta staff

Page 10

- CJI criticises BCI's interference in 'dialogue' between him and students
- Can BCI halt enrolment of an entire graduating batch?

Page 11

- PM praises resilience of those affected by Partition

Page 12

- Centre notifies 40 questions for second phase of Census 2027
- Island administration looking at data centre project on Nicobar

Page 13

- States turn to solar sops to cut loss via subsidised power
- Coal demand to touch 1.6 bn tonne by 2030, says official
- Green bonds find footing as stable 'greenium' shows investor appetite

Page 14

- Lower oil prices, not Iran's nuclear programme, now top priority: U.S.
- Israel's Katz calls for police to replace military in handling West Bank settlers

enquiries@fortuneias.com | www.fortuneias.com

+91 94950 15888 | +91 81389 40888

Click to Join our Telegram Channel

@fortuneias

